Quaint "Village by the Lake"!

Long Branch is a well established neighbourhood in the former City of Etobicoke, known for its cosy small-town feel located along the Toronto waterfront at the south-west end of the city of Toronto.

There are picturesque waterfront parks, a local arena, public library, waterfront trail, GO station and a vibrant shopping district on Lake Shore Blvd.

The area is attracting many chef’s and you can walk to delicious dining spots like Buster’s Fish House, The Empanada Company, 850 Degrees pizza, Dani Sushi Japanese & Korean restaurant, Pulcinella, Khao Gaeng, Thrive Organic Kitchen, Farm Boy gourmet grocery store, Woody’s Burger Bar. And the list keeps growing. Starbucks is nice and close too. Many shops are locally owned & operated.

Convenient shopping at the renowned & recently expanded Sherway Gardens just 10 minutes away featuring the finest of high end shops and stores. Plus many big box stores in that area.

Great school district! Kids can attend James S. Bell Sports & Wellness Academy for English or the fantastic Ecole Sir Adam Beck for French, St. Ambrose Catholic School, popular Lakeshore Collegiate, as well as many private, daycares and alternative schools close by.

Lots of local recreation & parks surround! Len Ford Park, Birch Park, the city run Gus Ryder Pool & Health Club or Alderwood pool, Long Branch Centennial Arena which offers public skating, ice hockey and programs for all ages.

The scenic Waterfront Trail offers miles of fitness and leisure activities. The trail meanders along the south end of this neighbourhood all the way from downtown Toronto out through Mississauga and passes through Len Ford Park, a cute spot for picnics, and Colonel Samuel Smith Park (south of Humber College campus) which hosts Lake Shore Mardi Gras 4 day summer concert, as well the winter skating trail and has the spectacular views of Lake Ontario. The Lakeshore Yacht Club, Lakeview Golf Course (City of Mississauga) and Toronto Golf Club (Private) are very close by.

The Long Branch Public Library is a friendly community-oriented library that offers pre-school to adults and seniors programming. The James S. Bell Community School rec centre offers crafts, sports, fitness, arts, music, martial arts, dance and general interest.

The Long Branch BIA is active - check out the distinctive nautical blue lamp posts that line Lake Shore Boulevard West. These cast-iron lamp posts are dressed up with seasonal banners. Decorative interlocking brickwork on the sidewalks together with planter boxes and seats make for an attractive streetscape. Christmas time sparkles with decorative lights resembling candy canes adorn the street lamps. There is a delightful local Santa Claus parade along the Lake Shore which annually takes place on the first Saturday in December.

Easy commute! Long Branch has its own GO station located at the west-end of this neighbourhood on the north side of Lakeshore Boulevard. Bus service at this station also links passengers to Union Station and the Yonge-University-Spadina subway lines.

Motorists can access downtown Toronto's entertainment and financial districts in approximately fifteen minutes via Lakeshore Boulevard. Commuters also enjoy quick access to the Airport, QEW and Highway 427 on-ramps at Browns Line.
